

Pierce County camp erin® 2009

camp erin is a 3-day grief camp for children ages 6-17 years sponsored by The Moyer Foundation. The 5th Annual Pierce County camp erin will be held June 12, 13 & 14, 2009 at the YMCA—Camp Seymour, located 22 miles west of Tacoma. Volunteers will arrive the evening of June 11th.

Approximately 40 volunteers are needed for this weekend camp. Volunteers must be available for training sessions (4/18 & 4/25), planning meetings, an evening to meet the campers and parents (5/27) & the weekend camp.

Cabin Big Buddies

Cabin counselors work with other Big Buddies, sleep in the cabin with the children/teens, eat with the children/teens and are responsible for them during their camp activities.

Committee Members

Committee members work in a team on a very specific part of camp. Committees include but are not limited to: Games, Activities, Music, Registration, Arts & Crafts.

Comments from previous volunteers

“fun—purposeful—a meaningful way for me to be involved with others”

“I will always remember the children.”

“I was able to touch the lives of my campers and support them with their journey.”

“So much fun! I loved spending so much time with the kids.”

For further information:

Darren Wenz, MSW

BRIDGES: A Center for Grieving Children
310 North K Street Tacoma, WA 98403
253-272-8266
darren.wenz@multicare.org