

My Rockwood Record: Information Regarding Pediatric Patients

MY ROCKWOOD RECORD IS OUR ONLINE PORTAL THAT ALLOWS YOU TO:

View your health information. | Get lab results faster. | Send questions or requests to your healthcare team.

ADD FAMILY MEMBER FEATURE:

- » One of the benefits of My Rockwood Record is the ability to view the health information and interact with the healthcare team of your family members who are under the age of 13 years old.
- » When you visit Rockwood Clinic, tell the staff at the registration desk that you would like to add your family members to your My Rockwood Record account.
- » When you complete your Family Access at home, you will be able to access the following information for the members of your My Rockwood Record Family Account:
 - View the family member's health information
 - View the family member's lab results
 - Send questions to the family member's healthcare team
 - View the family member's Immunizations Records

PEDIATRIC ACCESS ON MY ROCKWOOD RECORD:

- » Pediatric patients under the age of 13 are able to be added to Family Member accounts.
- » Parents will need to SHARE a unique email address.
- » Family access will not be granted to the accounts of individuals over the age of 13.
- » Please note, the parent or guardian may still come into Rockwood Clinic Medical Records to review your child's medical records with his or her consent. The online access is the service that automatically is removed at age 13 in accordance with Washington State law.
- » The minor child may re-enroll at age 18. To re-enroll in My Rockwood Record, the individual must come to a Rockwood Clinic location and complete the sign-in and verification process with his or her own email address.
- » We recommend talking with your child about the benefits of sharing his or her health information with you, however, you should know the State and Federal laws protect health rights of minors. On the back of this handout, we have provided a summary of these rights as a reference (note, this reference document was not prepared by Rockwood Clinic).
